

The existing commitment to improve the lives of children and families in the Northern Territory

Since August 2016, the Northern Territory Government has been working to address issues and deliver key reforms in improving outcomes for children and families in the Northern Territory.

$70 MILLION

Allocated to replace Don Dale and Alice Springs Youth Detention Centres

$18.2 MILLION PER ANNUM

Invested in strengthening Youth
Diversion and Bail Support through the Better Outcomes for Youth Justice

Improve after-hours services for young people in Alice Springs and Tennant Creek by investing $1.75 MILLION PER ANNUM

Committed to improve security and sustainability for the community sector through

5 YEAR FUNDING AGREEMENTS

$8 MILLION PER ANNUM

Invested in early intervention for students with additional needs and mental health issues

$3 MILLION

Invested in Family Enhanced Support Services to provide earlier, better support to families

Expand the Nurse Family Partnership Program to support new and expecting families $1 MILLION PER ANNUM

Investment in improving housing in remote Aboriginal Communities

$1.1 BILLION OVER 10 YEARS

$2 MILLION Invested in Healthy Life Creative Life to improve education outcomes in Katherine and the Barkly

LOCAL DECISION MAKING

Commitment and investment in community-led decision making and control

Committed to upgrade and improve school facilities through the Building Better Schools investment

$56.4 MILLION OVER FOUR YEARS

Supporting 38 Families as First Teachers sites across the Territory

$11 MILLION PER ANNUM

$124 MILLION OVER FOUR YEARS

Invested to strengthen schools and support services for students